Impreſſed with Sentiments of the moſt ſincere Loyalty and warmeſt Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will contribute, upon all Occaſions, our Aid, and give our Aſſiſtance to every Meaſure for the Support of your Majeſty's Government, the Honour of your Crown, and the Defence of your Dominions.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen and Freeholders, of the County of Fife.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen and Freeholders, of the County of Fife, filled with the warmeſt Attachment to the Intereſt and Security of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, beg Leave humbly to offer our moſt hearty Congratulations on the late glorious Succeſs which has attended your Majeſty's Arms in different Parts of the World.

Cupar, June 26, 1782.

Signed, in our Name and by our Appointment, by

LEVEN, P.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Meath, convened by the High Sheriff at Trim, on Thurſday the 27th Day of June, 1782.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Meath, thus humbly approach your Throne, to expreſs our hearty Concurrence in thoſe general Sentiments of Joy, Gratitude, and Admiration, which, in this auſpicious Period, have been diffuſed throughout your whole Empire, by your Majeſty's gracious Attention to the Wiſhes of your People, and by the Vigour, Purity and Magnanimity of your preſent Councils.

We acknowledge and revere, as a ſignal Inſtance of your Majeſty's Paternal Care for the Happineſs of your loyal People of Ireland, and for the Harmony of your whole Empire, the benignant Diſpoſition which you have lately manifeſted to forward the Reſtoration of our Rights. We repoſe the utmoſt Confidence in the gracious Intentions of your Majeſty, and in the Wiſdom of the Britiſh Parliament; and we remain in perfect Aſſurance that Juſtice will be done to the Claims of Ireland, and that we ſhall be ſpeedily reſtored to that Conſtitution, which is the Glory of Great Britain, and our Birth-right.

Happy in this firm and joyful Expectation, we aſſure your Majeſty that the firſt Principle of our Hearts is our Affection for the Britiſh Nation, an Affection which ſtands on the ſame Baſis with our Liberty, and which will grow and be ſtrengthened with our Conſtitution.

Thus inſeparably attached to the Fortunes of Great Britain, and embarked in one Cauſe with her, we have ſeen with Exultation the late ſplendid Succeſſes of your Majeſty's Fleets, and we have the firmeſt Hopes, under God, that henceforth Conqueſt will attend your Majeſty's Arms throughout the Globe; perſuaded as we are, that Union at Home muſt ever lead to Victory Abroad.

We truſt that this great Object will be effectually promoted, by the Grant which our Legiſlature has made of Twenty Thouſand Men for the Uſe of the Britiſh Navy: We rejoice in that Grant, as a Preſent worthy of the Liberality of Ireland, and of the grateful Acceptation of Great Britain; and we aſſure your Majeſty that no Exertion ſhall be omitted on our Parts, within this Diſtrict, to accelerate the raiſing of the Men for that important Purpoſe.

We return our hearty Thanks to your Majeſty, for your judicious Appointment of his Grace the Duke of Portland to the Government of this Kingdom; we conſider him as one of the firſt Ornaments of that truly Conſtitutional Miniſtry, which your Majeſty has been pleaſed to call to your Confidence, to the univerſal Contentment of your Subjects: And we doubt not, that as the Outſet of his Grace's Adminiſtration has been adorned by the Re-eſtabliſhment of our Freedom, ſo will the Progreſs of it exhibit ſuch a Syſtem of Frugality and Reform, as ſhall coincide with that already adopted under your Majeſty's Auſpices in Great Britain.

We conclude this humble Addreſs with praying that your Majeſty may long reign in the Hearts of your Subjects, and that the Britiſh Empire may long be exalted in Glory, and united in Affection, under the propitious Direction of a Patriot King, and a Patriot Adminiſtration.

Signed, by Order of the Meeting,

Tho. Aſhe, Sheriff.
